

Why Private Support is Important: Investing in Chi Phi ensures the continued success of the Fraternity. Private support from alumni, parents, undergraduates, friends and corporate partners builds better men, chapters and communities by strengthening and enhancing the values-based leadership and education programs offered to Chi Phi students. Undergraduate dues and fees pay only 60% of the overall expenses to run a national fraternity of more than 60 chapters and nearly 2,000 students. Annual support is critical to sustain excellence and create opportunities for students across the United States.

How Your Gift is Used: Thanks to generous donors, your annual gift to the Chi Phi Educational Trust has a direct impact on Chi Phi students and chapters. Each year the Educational Trust awards more than $50,000 in scholarships and funds innovative and cost-effective values-based educational programs like the Regional Leadership Alliance, College of Excellence and more - programs designed to instill authentic values like truth, honesty and personal integrity into every Chi Phi undergraduate.

Easy Ways to Give: You can make a gift using cash, check, money order, credit card, stock and other securities by contributing your gift all at once or spreading payments out over a period of time that's best for you. In addition, many individuals can take advantage of their company's corporate matching gift program to double or triple their gift to Chi Phi. Finally, Chi Phi will work with donors and their advisors to structure a variety of planned gifts including bequests, trusts and gifts of life insurance.

Chi Phi Mission: The mission of Chi Phi Fraternity is to build better men through lifelong friendships, leadership opportunities and character development. The Chi Phi Educational Trust is a 501(c)(3) educational foundation whose mission is to support the Fraternity by promoting scholarship, developing character, improving educational facilities and supporting charitable causes. Founded in 1930, the Trust is governed by a nine-member volunteer Board of Trustees.
